Re: United States v. John Wang, et al
12CR941 (RPP)

Dear Judge Preska:

This letter is written on behalf of Lianna Chen, whom I represent in the above-captioned matter. I filed the attached letter through ECF, on December 17, 2015. At that time, I was unaware of Judge Patterson's passing. I was instructed by the Clerk of the Court to forward the request to your Honor.

I now respectfully request that you grant the request for the return of Ms. Chen's passport. This matter is time-sensitive as she wishes to visit her grandmother in China who is elderly and quite ill at this point.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Alice L. Fentier

Re: United States v. John Wang, et al
12CR941 (RPP)

Dear Judge Patterson:

This letter is written on behalf of Lianna Chen, whom I represent in the above-referenced matter, and is to request that the Court Order the return of Ms. Chen's passport. Ms. Chen was sentenced to probation, and has successfully completed her sentence. Pre-Trial Services informed her that they would return her passport if she received a Court Order. The government, through Assistant United States Attorney Brian Blais, consents to this request.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

S//Alice L. Fontier
